Title:  Research Associate I and II (depending on experience)

Employment Type:  Administrative Professional

College:  Health and Human Sciences

Department:  Human Development & Family Studies

Salary:  Salary is commensurate with level of training and research or teaching experience.

Requirements:  The Department of Human Development and Family Studies seeks applications throughout the year from individuals who are interested in obtaining a temporary (i.e., time-limited) research position within the department. Applicants applying for such a position must hold at a minimum of a Bachelor’s degree in an appropriate discipline, such as psychology, human development and family studies, or another behavioral science. Applicants should have prior experience in the day-to-day organization of research projects, including recruitment of and contact with study participants, coordination of data collection activities, and data management. Excellent oral and written communication skills and good computer skills are important requirements. Salary is commensurate with level of training and experience.

Application Deadline:  06/30/2014

To Apply:  Interested applicants should electronically submit a cover letter stating their interest in employment, a current resume/curriculum vita, a statement of experience, and the names and contact information for three references to the Department of Human Development and Family Studies: Lise Youngblade, Department Head, Lise.Youngblade@colostate.edu

This pool is valid through June 30, 2014, at which time applicants wishing to remain in the pool must reapply.

Equal Opportunity Statement
Colorado State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. Colorado State University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce and complies with all Federal and Colorado State laws, regulations, and executive orders regarding non-discrimination and affirmative action. The Office of Equal Opportunity is located in 101 Student Services.

Colorado State University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Background checks may include, but are not limited to, criminal history, national sex offender search and motor vehicle history.