School of Education
College of Health and Human Sciences

Assistant/Associate Professor, Adult Education and Training (Tenure Track/Tenured)

Applications are invited for a tenure track/tenured position in Adult Education and Training (AET) at the advanced assistant or associate professor level.

This position is part of a cluster search designed to further the School of Education’s commitment and contributions to diversity, equity and inclusion in the fields of higher education leadership, adult education and training, counseling and career development, and science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) education through collaborative research, teaching and community engagement.

We seek a scholar committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives who (a) has high research productivity or potential, (b) has experience teaching in both on-campus and online environments, (c) can coordinate on-campus and online masters programs, (d) can help build alliances across multiple program areas within the School of Education and across the university, (e) is active in seeking external funding, and (f) can teach, advise, and mentor masters and doctoral students.

More information about the program area can be found at:
http://soe.chhs.colostate.edu/students/masters/aet/index.aspx
http://www.online.colostate.edu/degrees/aet-online/

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Teach masters and doctoral-level courses both on-campus and online.
- Advise graduate students in the School of Education and chair and serve on dissertation committees.
- Strengthen existing and develop new partnerships with municipal, state, and private sector organizations related to adult education.
- Engage in externally funded research, especially in relation to diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives.
- Provide visionary leadership for and coordinate the AET program area.
- Work collaboratively with faculty members across the university on teaching, research, and community engagement initiatives related to diversity, interdisciplinarity, and internationalization.
REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Earned doctorate degree in Adult Education or a related field
- Record of scholarship and publication commensurate with a research university (high research activity)
- Experience teaching in online and on-campus environments
- Demonstrated ability to foster collaborative relationships with stakeholders
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion in teaching, research, and service
- Experience advising and mentoring graduate students

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Experience with program planning, student recruitment, and enrollment management
- A record of service to adult education agencies/providers
- A record of successful collaboration across academic fields
- Success at securing external funding commensurate with a research university (very high research activity)
- Evidence of effective team building and team management
- Service in relevant national and/or international professional organizations
- Experience teaching research methods
- Experience with curriculum development
- Demonstrated commitment to culturally responsive practices and culturally relevant instruction

SALARY AND BENEFITS: This is a nine-month, full-time position. Salary is negotiable and commensurate with qualifications and experience. Colorado State University offers an excellent selection of benefits. The University is committed to creating a community which values and supports diversity; individuals who contribute to such commitment are strongly encouraged to apply.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: For full consideration, complete applications should be submitted electronically to the Search Committee Chair by December 30, 2014. Finalists for the position will be interviewed in February or early March. The search will remain open until the position is filled. The start date for the position is August 16, 2015.

For more information about the position, the School of Education or Colorado State University, please contact Dr. Gene Gloeckner, Professor and Search Co-Chair: gene.gloeckner@colostate.edu or (970) 491-7661.

Complete applications should include a letter of interest that addresses the qualifications and responsibilities for the position, a full curriculum vita, and the names, positions, and contact information for three references. References will be contacted only with the candidate’s prior approval. Submit application materials electronically to:
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY: Colorado State University is a land-grant institution with a three-part mission of teaching, research, and engagement. The campus is located in the city of Fort Collins, the county seat of Larimer County. Fort Collins is a progressive community of approximately 150,000 people, situated 65 miles north of Denver. Located at an elevation of 5,000 feet, Fort Collins has a clear, dry climate and generally pleasant temperature throughout the year, and has outstanding recreational opportunities. The city has an excellent public school system and has been listed by several national publications as one of the best places to live in the United States. For more about Fort Collins, go to http://www.ftcollins.org.

Colorado State University is committed to providing an environment that is free from discrimination and harassment based on race, age, creed, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or pregnancy. Colorado State University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce and complies with all Federal and Colorado State laws, regulations, and executive orders regarding non-discrimination and affirmative action. The Office of Equal Opportunity is located in 101 Student Services.

Colorado State University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Background checks may include, but are not limited to, criminal history, national sex offender search, and motor vehicle history.