School of Education
College of Health and Human Sciences

Assistant Professor, Counseling and Career Development (Tenure Track)

Applications are invited for a tenure track assistant professor in the Counseling and Career Development (CCD) program area.

This position is part of a cluster search designed to further the School of Education’s commitment and contributions to diversity, equity and inclusion in the fields of higher education leadership, adult education and training, counseling and career development, and science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) education through collaborative research, teaching and community engagement.

We seek a scholar committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives who (a) can teach graduate-level counseling courses, (b) has high research productivity or potential, (c) can advise and mentor graduate students, (d) can supervise practicum and internship experiences, (e) has the potential to secure external funding, and (d) can help build alliances across multiple program areas.

The CCD program area offers three tracks fully accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP): Career Counseling, College Counseling, and School Counseling. The CCD program area has a rich history of excellence in counselor education with a strong reputation for quality teaching and research. More information about the program can be found at: http://soe.chhs.colostate.edu/students/masters/ccd/index.aspx.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Teach graduate-level counseling courses.
- Provide clinical supervision and coordination of students’ practicum and/or internship experiences.
- Advise and mentor graduate students.
- Provide service to the program area, school, college, university, community, state, and nation.
- Conduct applied research in areas of expertise and related to diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives.
- Work collaboratively with faculty members across the university on teaching, research, and community engagement initiatives related to diversity, interdisciplinarity, and internationalization.
REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Earned doctorate in Counselor Education, Career Development, or a related field
- Licensure (or licensure eligible) as a professional counselor in Colorado
- Evidence of or potential for scholarship and publication commensurate with a research university (very high research activity)
- Commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion as demonstrated in teaching, research, creative activity, and outreach

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Doctoral degree from a CACREP accredited program
- Graduate-level teaching and advising experience
- Evidence of excellence in clinical supervision
- Training and experience in counseling with diverse populations
- Experience teaching research methods
- Demonstrated commitment to culturally responsive practices and culturally relevant instruction

SALARY AND BENEFITS: This is a nine-month, full-time position. Salary is negotiable and commensurate with qualifications and experience. Colorado State University offers an excellent selection of benefits. The University is committed to creating a community which values and supports diversity; individuals who contribute to such commitment are strongly encouraged to apply.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: For full consideration, complete applications should be submitted electronically to the Search Committee Chair by December 30, 2014. Finalists for the position will be interviewed in February or early March. The search will remain open until the position is filled. The start date for the position is August 16, 2015.

For more information about the position, the School of Education or Colorado State University, please contact Dr. Louise Jennings, Professor and Search Co-Chair: louise.jennings@colostate.edu or 970-491-5425.

Complete applications should include a letter of interest that addresses the qualifications and responsibilities for the position, a full curriculum vita, and the names, positions, and contact information for three references. References will be contacted only with the candidate’s prior approval. Submit application materials electronically to:

Dr. Louise Jennings
c/o: Ms. Heidi Propp, Administrative Assistant heidi.propp@colostate.edu
(970) 491-6316
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY: Colorado State University is a land-grant institution with a three-part mission of teaching, research, and engagement. The campus is located in the city of Fort Collins, the county seat of Larimer County. Fort Collins is a progressive community of approximately 150,000 people, situated 65 miles north of Denver. Located at an elevation of 5,000 feet, Fort Collins has a clear, dry climate and generally pleasant temperature throughout the year, and has outstanding recreational opportunities. The city has an excellent public school system and has been listed by several national publications as one of the best places to live in the United States. For more about Fort Collins, go to http://www.ftcollins.org.

Colorado State University is committed to providing an environment that is free from discrimination and harassment based on race, age, creed, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or pregnancy. Colorado State University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce and complies with all Federal and Colorado State laws, regulations, and executive orders regarding non-discrimination and affirmative action. The Office of Equal Opportunity is located in 101 Student Services.

Colorado State University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Background checks may include, but are not limited to, criminal history, national sex offender search, and motor vehicle history.