

Photo Release Form

Periodically, the Colorado State University Occupational Therapy Department will photograph faculty, staff, students and guests during classes and departmental events. The Department may wish to use these photographs in various publications, both written and web-based, that are designed to relay news events or to recruit potential students. By signing below you grant permission to the CSU Occupational Therapy Department to photograph you and to reproduce your photograph for the Occupational Therapy webpage, bulletin board, or other printed formats necessary for disseminating information about the CSU Occupational Therapy program.

I, (print name)_____ grant permission to the Colorado State University Occupational Therapy Department to photograph me and to reproduce my photograph for their webpage and for various other publications/displays produced by Colorado State University.
