El Destino

LOCATION: Denver, CO

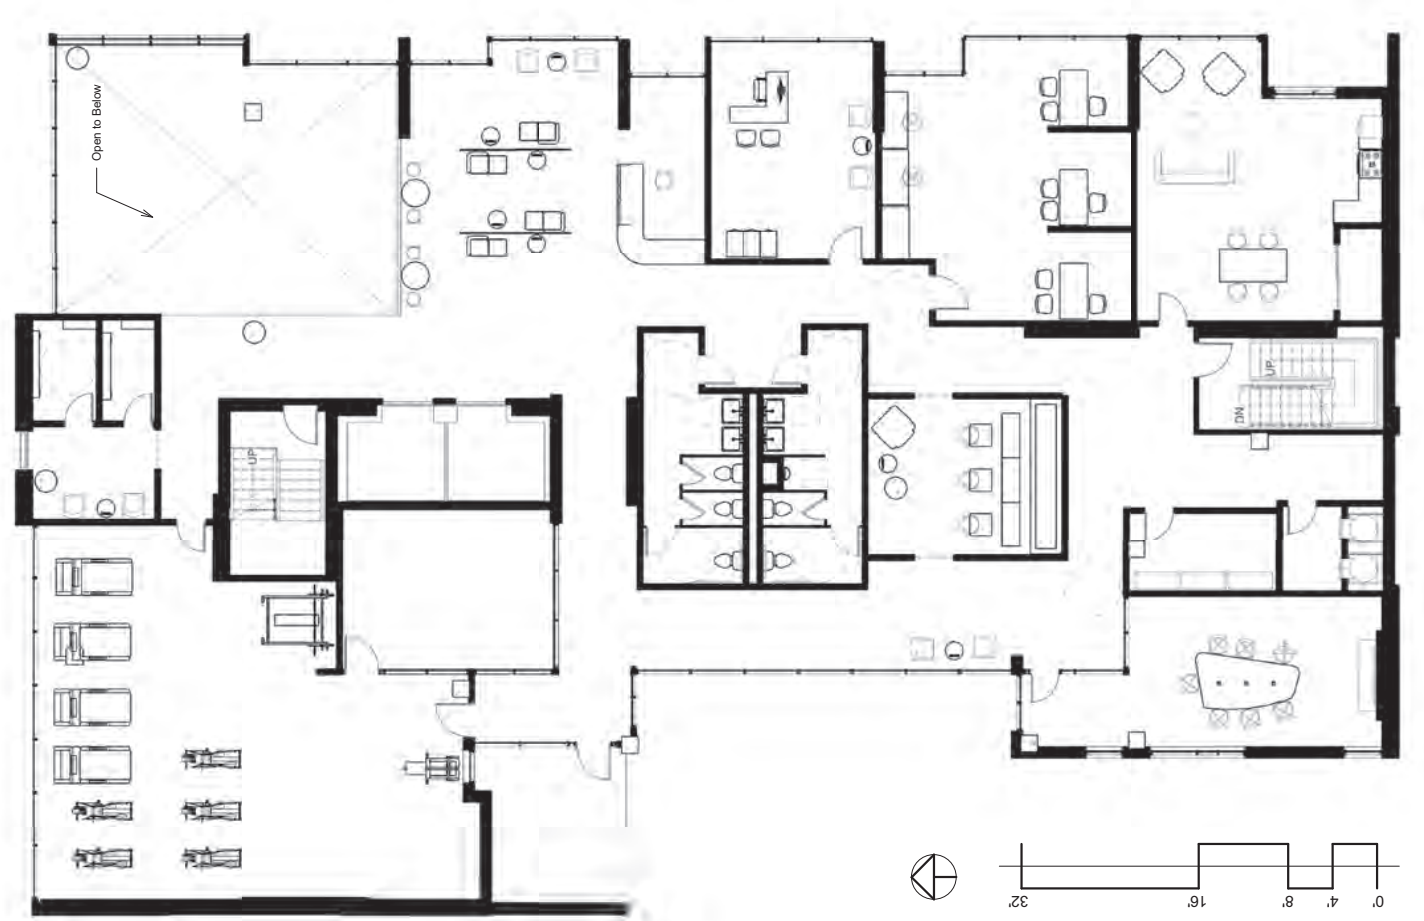

El Destino is a multipurpose building with a focus on affordable student housing. The building includes a cafe, offices for a non-profit organization, and student apartments. The Spanish name translates to "The Destination" because it is dedicated to helping the Latin community by providing a safe space for different users. The location can bring many diverse users from the college campus, office buildings, residences, and other local businesses. It will symbolize the feeling of belonging and being accepted in this community while being encouraged to continue on their path at the same time.
