Thrive Co-Work is a space of community for working women to be able to come and thrive alongside each other in an environment that inspires creativity and productivity in a space that allows safety and focus. The space will include private and public areas to allow completion of any type of task, a coffee stand to improve productivity through caffeination, sleep pods (just in case you can't make it home to get a quick power nap in), a yoga and workout studio, an art studio, lecture halls and of course spaces to revive and refresh. All of those spaces will exist together in an environment that will inspire the most productive version of yourself for any aspiring career goal.
