

MacKenzie Bayless

Peak's Garden

Colorado Springs, Colorado

Peak's garden is a restaurant designed to be a space that is impactful, and a joy to visit. Based at the south end of Colorado Springs, this restaurant is placed in the perfect location to see the beautiful views that pikes peak has to offer. The restaurant can be broken up into three part. The restaurants where guests will mainly spend their time, has multiple dining experiences, including two outdoor seating areas, and a second-floor bar where you can see the view. The greenhouse which is where the restaurant plans to grow some of there fruits and veggies, but also holds as a space for guests to come relax and buy some greenery. The last space is the warehouse, although its not the most glamorous the warehouse is crucial to the upkeeping of Peak's garden. In the warehouse guests can tour to see what it takes for a business to be close to a zero- waste system. Each part of Peak's garden is to provides guests with a calming and relaxing experiences while be green, and eco-friendly, our mission is to strive for people to enjoy being

1) Main Dining Room

Site

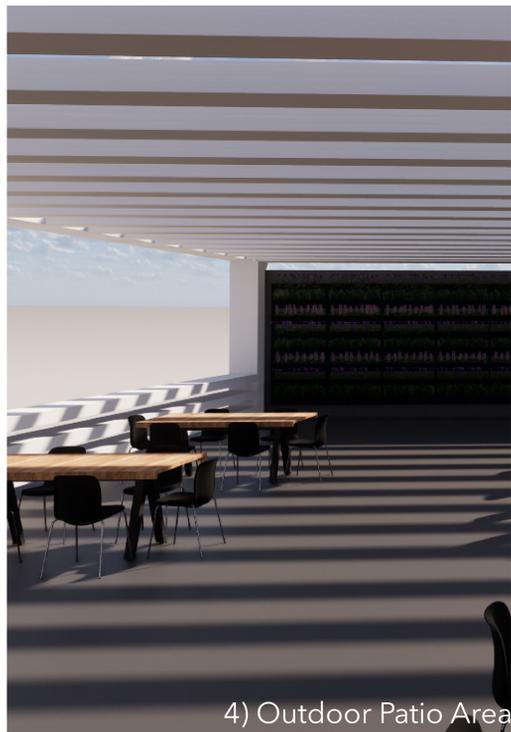

Based in southern Colorado Springs, Peak;s garden is right off of I-25 and is surrounded by special venues including the Broadmoor World Arena, and the Broadmoor. This location provides beautiful views, of Pikes Peak and Garden of the Gods. This location was once an old sears, and is surrounded by local shopping.

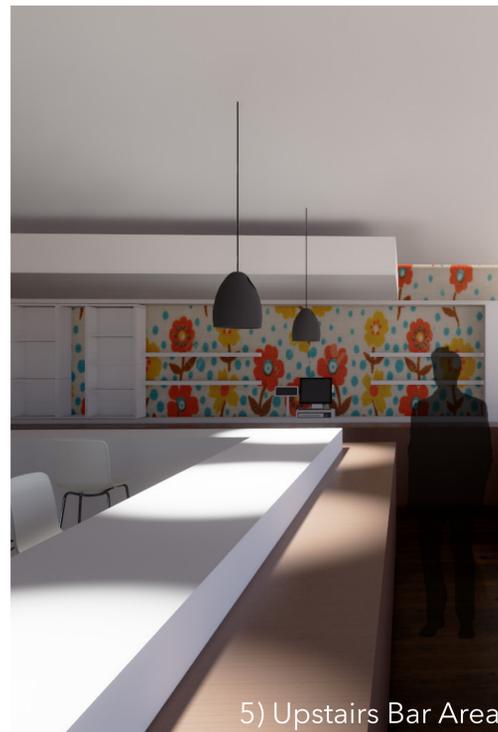

2) Greenhouse

3) Outdoor Dining Area

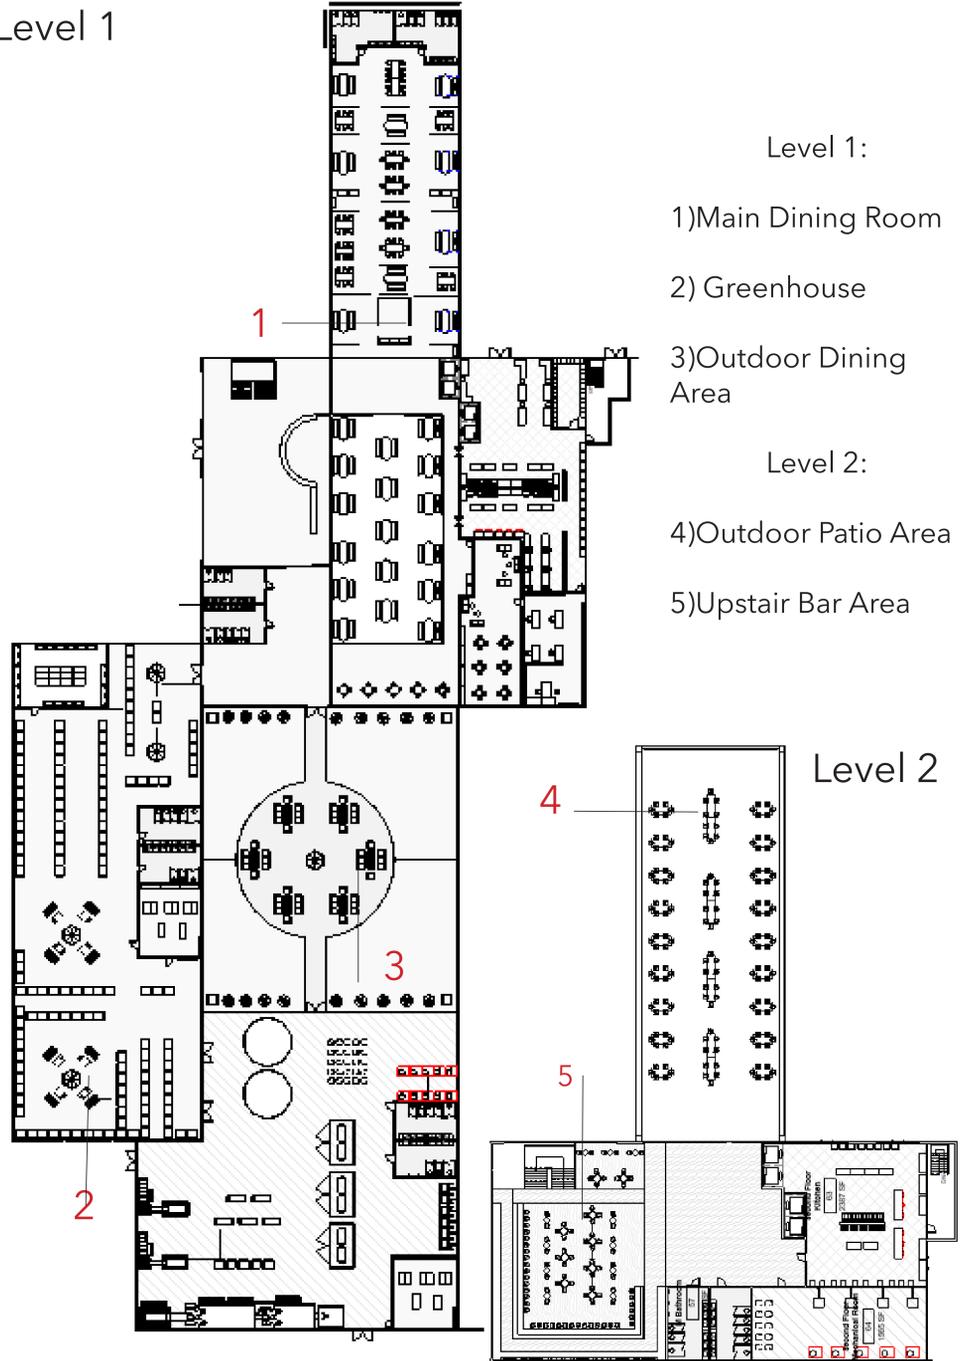

4) Outdoor Patio Area

5) Upstairs Bar Area

Level 1

Level 1:

- 1) Main Dining Room
- 2) Greenhouse
- 3) Outdoor Dining Area

Level 2:

- 4) Outdoor Patio Area
- 5) Upstairs Bar Area

Level 2